This grace is all powerful, it is the incident solar ray of light whose human strength is only the reflected light.

Grace, may be obtained by the desire for truth, by the sincerity of the mind, by the purity of the heart. Divine grace always lies in the harmonized being. All possibilities can be accomplished with radiant grace.

This divine grace remains in your heart; through it, the avidya (ignorance and illusion) is destroyed forever.

Grace can be obtained by meditation on the Pranava mantra which is called AUM. By complete grace is obtained supreme happiness. Grace is Daya, the divine gift, it is life on the scale of divisibility. Its highest manifestation appears in the perpetual sacrifice of the WORD.
